FROM THE JUDGES

Judge's Report

This year's show saw entry numbers fall back into line with a total of 366 entrants. 2018 had swelled to 416 entries on the back of a successful 2017 vintage and for perspective, 2017 had 353 entries.

With that, there was also a decrease in the total number of medals awarded. Out of the 366 entrants, 48% were awarded 85 points (Bronze) and above, compared to 2018 which saw nearly 55% of all entrants receive 85 points (Bronze) and above. The real focus was at the higher end of the scale with a significant decrease in the amount of Gold medals awarded. This year only 7% of wines received 95 points (Gold) compared to 11% the previous year. This potentially illustrates a more challenging 2018 vintage off the back of a more lauded 2017.

These reductions were more prevalent in the two largest classes, Class 4 Chardonnay (which was the largest with 104 entries) and Class 7 Pinot Noir (with 94 entries). Interesting that the top wines in Class 4 still had a solid representation of 2017 Chardonnays (36%) in the mix; compared to Class 7 only had 15% of 2017 Pinot Noirs with the vast majority from 2018.

Sparkling wines also performed very well this year with a variety of styles being rewarded. Unfortunately, Shiraz didn't perform at the same standard as previous. Those that did, showed freshness, balance and higher levels of complexity.

Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet and Friends (Class 8 and Class 9) are as consistent as ever, producing a significantly high strike rate with 15% and 14% (respectively) receiving Gold medals. A terrific variety of styles from the region which displayed balanced and intensity.

I would like to thank the stewards, fellow judges and the committee for giving up their time and expertise to make the show possible. The standard that they all provide is exceptional to say the least. I'm already looking forward to next year's show, which will be my last. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for participating and making the Yarra Valley Wine Show one of the best shows in the country.
