FROM THE JUDGES

Judge's Report

It is with great pleasure I am able to ponder over the 2020 Langton's Yarra Valley Wine Show and present my thoughts about the results. Just a few months ago it seemed that we would have to cancel the 2020 show after postponing from its scheduled date. But as we have learnt, there is always something around the corner in 2020 and after a 28 day stretch without any new cases in Victoria, we were able to push on to run the show from November 30th until December 1st. Sincere thanks to Oakridge for providing the venue for the show, a stunning place to judge.

2020 was the first time since 2011 that the Yarra Valley Wine Show was judged on its own, without the inclusion of the James Halliday Chardonnay Challenge. This was a positive move by the Yarra Valley Wine Growers Association for the exhibitors, and the reputation of the show for the entire industry. It ensures judging is completely Yarra Valley focused and gives every exhibitor the confidence that their wine is getting the full attention it deserves.

This focus from the judging panels meant we could introduce a few changes to the traditional judging structure. Having the luxury of two panels of four judges in each, judging took place over two full days with 305 entries. This allowed each panel to judge under 80 wines a day, well less than the current convention of 100-120 wines per day. So rather than a panel sorting out the classes it is judging and awarding all the medals and trimming it down to a Top Gold, all the Gold medals awarded in the entire show were put forward to the trophy round, ensuring every judge at the show, tasted and approved every Gold medal and trophy awarded. A double and triple check of all the top awards.

The other initiative trialed in the 2020 Yarra Valley Wine Show, was judging wines in the Chardonnay and Pinot Noir classes based on the altitude of the vineyard where the fruit was grown. The classes were divided into three sections, less than 150m ABS, >150m ABS and blends of the two, or entries where this information was not provided. The judges were not informed of what section they were judging, only that it was a group. This is a natural extension of regional grouping that happens at many capital city wine shows. The result from this was extremely interesting, particularly in the Chardonnay classes. There were eight Gold medals awarded to Chardonnay and incredible to say that four Golds were awarded to 2019 wines, all from below 150m and four Golds to 2018 wines, all from above 150m. This reinforces that 'Upper' Yarra wines do need more time to show their best and Valley floor wines have an approachability in their first year. Judging them in groups produced stronger and more diverse results. Judging like with like, the top wines rise to top.

Overall, the quality of the wines was extremely high with 58% of entries awarded a medal, 10% Gold, 16% Silver and 32% Bronze. What was also pleasing was the range of producers across the Yarra Valley with Golds or trophies, illustrating the strong competition with traditional high quality estates and the emerging smaller quality focused producers.

A huge thanks to Caroline Evans and the YVWGA team for their persistence and energy to get this show to happen. Thank you also to the judges for giving their time and expertise. To the back of house team, led by Adam Keath and Elita Vezis and all the volunteers who worked extremely efficiently and professionally. Finally, to the exhibitors, thank you for entering and supporting your local show, it could not happen without you!
